Altar Servers RED Team April 2-3

We continue our Lenten journey arriving at the Fourth Sunday of Lent. This season of grace and opportunity is flying by! We keep in our prayers those who will be received into the Church at the Great Easter Vigil (Saturday, April 16th, 8:00pm), the Elect who will be immersed into the life of the Risen Christ and the faith of the Church through the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and the Eucharist, and our Candidates who will complete their initiation into the life of the Church by receiving the Sacraments of Confirmation and the Eucharist. Last Sunday we began to celebrate the Scrutiny Rites for the Elect at the 9:30 Mass, continuing today and next Sunday. A Scrutiny examines the intentions of the heart of those who wish to be received into the Church. It also provides us with an opportunity to examine our own hearts and intentions, purifying them through Christ's love and healing forgiveness. If you, or someone you know, are interested in becoming a Catholic Christian, please email or call Anna Marie at the Faith Formation Office: 727-733-0872 or Annamarie@ourladydunedin.org. Don't be afraid to invite others to come to know Christ in the Catholic Church. If we don't extend an invitation and the hand of friendship, they won't come! Jesus personally invited people to come and see.

It has been a joy to see so many praying the Stations of the Cross on a Friday. This coming Friday, April 1st, at 7:00pm our Eighth Grade Students will present the 'Living Stations' from the perspective of Mother Mary. Before the Stations, you are invited to the Fish Fry in the School Cafeteria, 4:30 till 7:00pm. It was also a joy to see so many people storming heaven during Forty Hours of Exposition as we continue to pray for peace in Ukraine, and every corner of this world so loved by God. This weekend, the special collection is for the work of Catholic Relief Services who are providing humanitarian assistance in the Ukraine. Special envelopes are provided in the pews, you can take one home and return it next week.

Tomorrow, Monday, March 28th, 6:30pm, the First Holy Communion journey begins. Parents and children will gather in the Conmy Center, Rooms B and C. The Rite of Enrollment for First Communion is celebrated at the 9:30 Mass on Sunday, April 3rd. Please pray for the children and their families as they begin this exciting adventure of faith.

Confessions have returned on a Wednesday evening at 6:00pm. This Sacrament is also celebrated on a Saturday at 8:00am. There will be a Service of Reconciliation on Wednesday, April 13th at 6:30pm. A number of priests will be available for individual confession. We are so blessed to encounter the extravagance of God's generosity through the sacraments. The Gospels are a story of the triumph of God's generosity. God invites us into a joyful life of generosity. Let gratitude and generosity flow through us to others.

Congratulations, Sydney Abrams Altar Server of the Year!

Sydney is currently a senior at Palm Harbor University High School in the International Baccalaureate program. This fall she will be attending Florida State University as a business and psychology major. She says, "it has been a privilege to serve alongside Fr. Gary and my wonderful altar serving team. I am forever grateful for the guidance of Mrs. Lisa Porthouse and Mrs. Kathy Bolton during my time as an altar server. I shall remember my time at Our Lady of Lourdes as a student, altar server, and lector fondly as I begin this next chapter of my life."

Catholic Relief Services Collection

This Weekend, March 26-27

This week we take up The Catholic Relief Services Collection to reveal Christ's love to our brothers and sisters in need. This collection helps six Catholic agencies to provide relief and support for struggling communities and to work for peace and reconciliation among our marginalized brothers and sisters here and around the world, including in Ukraine, helping the civilian victims of war. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the collection. Learn more about the collection at usccb.org/catholic-relief.

MRS. MELODY PARKS
2ND GRADE

Did you know that using technology can help second grade students master their math facts? The day before Christmas break, we were blessed with a class set of Chromebooks that added to the already high level of excitement. The students quickly learned to sign into the desktop and find the programs we have been using, such as iXL, Xtramath, and Epic books! Xtramath is a program we have been using to help master math facts, but now that each student has their own Chromebook, they are able to include this as part of their morning work and practice them daily. It is an important part of learning the fundamentals of math for continued success!

I have also introduced the students to Kahoot, which is a "game-show" program where they compete to answer questions in a group or as an individual. We have also been able to use interactive maps online to enrich our social studies unit by exploring the expansion of the United States, starting with the 13 original colonies.

This son of mine was dead, and has come to life again. He was lost, and has been found.

God's mercy transforms our lives, and calls us to gratitude and generosity. Renewed in our gratefulness for the Lord's many gifts, please support our diocese's Catholic Ministry Appeal this Lenten season.

CONGRATULATIONS to Our Lady of Lourdes Parish! We have pledged a total of $163,955 of our goal of $193,525 towards the Catholic Ministry Appeal.

We are now at 84% of our goal!

If you have not already pledged a gift, please give today to this very important cause that helps the people in our diocese.

LENTEN REFLECTION

I will get up and go to my Father and shall say to him: Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. Luke 15:8

When asked, Mark Twain named Jesus Christ as the greatest storyteller of all time, and when pressed, Twain suggested that the Prodigal Son was his best work. The story is full of the elements of good fiction: family drama, bad decisions, suspense, reconciliation and ultimately, a happy ending. As in any good story, we can relate to each character and find bits of ourselves mirrored in them.

More often than we want to admit we have been the prodigal younger son. We've been wasteful and reckless with material goods – we spend too much and recycle too little. While money and possessions are one thing, the ways in which we are wasteful and reckless with the affections of others are more serious. Things can be replaced, but heartache and pain are not so easily overcome and must be honestly dealt with.

Lent is a time for each of us to consider what relationships we take for granted, assuming that they will remain, and also, the hurts we have inflicted on others that require forgiveness.

Just as often as we've been the younger brother, we have been the self-righteous older one. We've been diligent, sure to do what has been asked. We've been faithful to the letter of the law, even if we resented it. We've lined up our virtues and accolades and have taken credit for our own successes and salvation. We've judged others by our rules and values. We've resented second chances and mercy given to others, particularly when we aren't able to give the same to ourselves.

Lent asks us to shed our close-mindedness as well as the structures of virtue that keep us from loving others and seeing them as children of God and true brothers and sisters.

Many believe that this story should be called the Parable of the Merciful Father. For it is the mercy of the father that provides all the plot twists, reconciliation and driving action of the story. He runs out to each of his children and is, in turn, consoling and welcoming and affirming and reassuring. The father meets their needs as a loving parent and forms the family around mercy and forgiveness. In our best moments, we emulate the love and mercy of the Father by seeing others beyond their failings or accomplishments.

Lent is long for a reason. The six weeks of Lent give us a sustained amount of time to consider our relationships with God and others.

How are you, the elder son, fixated on accomplishments and justice?

How are you the younger son, squandering both material goods and the affections of others?

How are you the merciful father?

Catholic Social Teaching Theme 4: Rights & Responsibilities

CST 101 is a collaborative video series between USCCB and CRS that explores the 7 Themes of Catholic Social teaching, and living our mission as disciples in the world today. In this week's video we will see that Catholic tradition teaches that human dignity can be protected and a healthy community can be achieved only if human rights are protected and responsibilities are met. Therefore, every person has a fundamental right to life and a right to those things required for human decency. Corresponding to these rights are duties and responsibilities--to one another, to our families, and to the larger society.
